CONSTITUTION

Article 1: Name

The name of the association shall be the “District Parent Advisory Council No. 57 Prince George” (hereafter known as “the Council” or “DPAC”).

Article 2: Purposes of the Council

The purpose of the Council is:

1. To be the collective voice of parents in the District.
2. To advise the District on any matter relating to education in the District.
3. To communicate with parents and Parent Advisory Councils (PACs) on District policies, programs, and activities, and other educational matters.
4. To promote a spirit of co-operation between PACs in the School District.
5. To assist parents in forming, maintaining, and further developing Parent Advisory Councils at the School level within the District.
6. To provide leadership in developing and understanding the rights and responsibilities of parents within the education system.
7. To provide a link between Parent Advisory Councils and all educational stakeholders and rightsholders, the Board of Education, the BC Confederation of Parent Advisory Councils, the Ministry of Education, and other organizations with an interest in education.
8. To advise and participate in the activities of the BC Confederation of Parent Advisory Councils.
9. To operate as a non-profit organization with no personal financial benefit accruing to members.
10. To ensure the business of the Council will be unbiased in respect of race, religion, gender, sexual orientation, or politics.

Article 3: Dissolution

1. In the event of the dissolution of the Council and following the payment of any and all debts and costs of dissolution, any charitable gaming funds received from licensed charitable gaming and/or direct charitable access and all gaming monies or assets purchased with gaming funds held at the date of dissolution, shall be distributed by the Council to such a charitable organization or organizations in British Columbia having a similar charitable purpose. Such a charitable organization or organizations shall be decided by the membership of the Council at the final general meeting. This provision is unalterable.
2. Any remaining funds, not received from gaming, shall be distributed to each Parent Advisory Council in the District, based on the full time equivalent student enrollment at each School at the time of dissolution. This provision is unalterable.

BYLAWS

Bylaw 1: Terms

1. District is the School District No. 57 Prince George.
2. School is any public educational institution as defined in the School Act administered by the District.
3. Parent(s) is the parent or guardian of a child or children registered at a School in the District according to the School Act.
4. Stakeholder is anyone who has a vested interest in education and can either affect or be affected by the Ministry of Education’s operations at any level. Stakeholders can be both internal or external.

Bylaw 9: Code of Conduct

1. The Code of Conduct consists of rules for maintaining high standards of conduct for DPAC Executive Officers.
2. The outgoing Secretary shall ensure that elected executive officers shall agree, in writing at or before the first general meeting after their election, to abide by the Code of Conduct.
3. The Code of Conduct can be changed by a simple majority vote of the membership.

Bylaw 10: Internal Committees

1. Standing and ad hoc committees shall be formed when necessary.
2. The membership shall approve a standing committee's mandate, which shall include the committee's responsibilities, membership, reporting procedures and any delegated decision-making authority.
3. The Executive shall review committee mandates annually.
4. The membership shall approve an ad hoc committee mandate which, in addition to above, will include the term of the committee and procedures for a final report.
5. Committees are accountable to both the Executive and membership.

Bylaw 11: External Committees

1. The Executive shall approve representatives to external committees.
2. Preference will be given to Executive members with at least one year's experience on the Executive. All DPAC representatives are eligible for election, unless the external committee has a specific requirement for their representative.
3. A person may only represent the Council on an external committee for a maximum of four (4) consecutive years.
4. Members representing the Council on external committees shall provide a report to the membership at the next general meeting.

Bylaw 12: Finances

1. A budget shall be drawn up by the Executive or a Finance Committee and presented for approval by the membership.
2. The Executive shall present, for approval at a general meeting, all proposed expenditures above and beyond the budget.
3. The Executive has a discretionary spending limit of up to a certain amount, as approved annually by the membership, for extraordinary expenses above and beyond the budget where time does not allow approval by the membership. The Executive shall report on all discretionary spending at the next general meeting.
4. All funds of the Council shall be kept on deposit in a bank or financial institution registered under the Bank Act.
5. The Executive shall name at least three (3) signing officers for banking and legal documents. Signatures of two (2) signing officers shall be required on all cheques written on the Council's accounts.
6. A written Treasurer's Report shall be presented at each general meeting, and a year-end report will be presented at the AGM or first meeting of the following School year.
7. The membership shall annually elect a financial review committee to examine the books of the Council, to consist of at least two DPAC representatives and/or Executive members without signing authority on the Council's accounts. The committee shall be given a date to report back to the membership.
8. Executive officers shall not be remunerated for being or acting in their elected position but shall be reimbursed for all expenses necessarily and reasonably incurred by the officer while engaged in the affairs of the Council.
9. The Council shall not exercise borrowing powers.

Bylaw 13: Amendments to the Constitution and Bylaws

1. Amendments to the Constitution and Bylaws may be made at any general meeting at which business is conducted.
2. Written notice of the meeting and the amendment(s) shall be given at least 14 days prior to the meeting. The written notice shall include the specific amendment(s) and the purpose(s).
3. A three-quarters (75%) majority of the voting membership present shall be required to approve amendments to the Constitution and the Bylaws.
4. A current copy of the Constitution and Bylaws shall be readily accessible to all members.

Bylaw 14: Property in Documents

All documents, records, minutes, correspondence or other papers kept by an Executive officer or committee member in connection with the Council shall be considered property of the Council and shall be turned over to the Chairperson when the Executive officer or committee member ceases to perform the task to which the papers relate.

Bylaw 15: Parliamentary Authority

The rules contained in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern the Council in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with these Bylaws and any special rules of order the Council may adopt.
